Purchased for $130k from Waikato Stud

Noverre x Snowdrop
Filly

My pick of the sale on type and from one of Waikato Stud's outstanding families. A filly with real size, scope and quality. We've managed to buy into a fantastic pedigree at great value, and she'll always hold strong residual value throughout her racing career. Limited shares remain in this "Queen".

-Tony Pike

This filly is an outstanding example of quality, scope and athleticism, sourced from one of Waikato Stud's most established and successful families. She immediately stood out on type, combining size and strength with balance and quality, and possesses the kind of physical that gives confidence she will train on and perform as her career progresses.

Purchased at great value, she represents an opportunity to buy into a proven pedigree without the premium often attached to families of this calibre. Her background offers strong residual value, ensuring she remains commercially attractive throughout her racing career and beyond. Fillies of this profile are increasingly sought after.

Purchased with performance in mind, she has all the attributes we look for in a filly capable of developing into a competitive racehorse, while also holding significant appeal as a future breeding prospect. Opportunities to secure shares in fillies of this quality and family are limited, making this an exciting option for those looking to be involved in a genuine top-end prospect.
